She has personally been asked by Disney to write for 6 of their major films and has also had successful pitches for synchs with ABC, MTV and a major UK television show. She has also recently received interest from Nike and Apple for synchs in the ad world. In addition to writing, Simone enjoys being a mentor to up and coming writers and is also currently developing talent in the U.S. and Europe. She believes that every collaboration is unique and that the best way to create great art and fresh, new sounds is by mixing the unexpected and to stay open to trying new things.

Shannon Quisenbery is the Director of Creative Licensing and Artist Relations; THINK Music Inc. Shannon was introduced to the music industry through a collegiate program at The University of Texas at Austin, assisting the producers for the acclaimed live television program Austin City Limits in 2004. After two seasons working on episodes with some of the biggest artists on the planet (Wilco, Etta James, Pixies, Elvis Costello, The Shins, The Flaming Lips, to name a few), she decided that behind the scenes in the music industry is where she belonged. She soon found herself at Brick Wall Management in New York City, supporting their busy management team. For 6 years, she worked with their large roster of artists and producers that included Citizen Cope, Marc Broussard, The Clarks, and Grammy-nominated singer-songwriter Ari Hest. After moving to LA and working on Ingrid Michelson's management team, Shannon was quickly drawn to the licensing side of the industry and started working with Platform Music Group in 2015. Now at THINK, Shannon has been an integral part of helping artists land placements, from hit TV shows (The Leftovers, Shameless, Claws, Queen Sugar, Suits, Lucifer) to nationwide Advertisements (Fitbit, Toyota, Comcast) and everything in between.

Suzan Koc is a true international publisher. She started her career at Warner/Chappell in Paris, France, where she signed the Swedish pop band Ace of Base. In 1996 Suzan was hired by the prestigious English boutique company Hit & Run Music, where she was instrumental in developing the career of songwriter Shelly Peiken (What a Girl Wants, Christina Aguilera; Almost Doesn't Count, Brandy; Who You Are, Jessie J.) and Pam Sheyne (Genie In A Bottle). More recently, Suzan introduced Wally Gagel and Xandy Barry who are now the production team WAX Ltd (Family of the Year, Zella Day, Muse, Redlight King...), placed songs by songwriter Busbee (Pink's Try), set up fruitful co-writes for David Gamson (Kelly Clarkson's Stronger) and Jean Baptiste (Benny Bennassi feat. John Legend Dance the Night Away). In 2008, Suzan started Songwriters Rendezvous workshops where she helps songwriters find their own voice and write songs in a comprehensive fashion. She explains, "This is not a one-size-fits-all situation. The point is to stand out, not blend in." Suzan teaches Music Publishing at the prestigious Musician's Institute in Hollywood, where she developed the 2nd quarter curricular, which focuses on international publishing. Her understanding of the craft and the business makes her a unique mentor. She is determined to keep her ears fresh and stay in tune with the changes. Her approach to music is of a true art lover.
